Missionary of the Month

Dan & Anne Marie Chapple - EMCC World Partners

Our primary ministry focus is to equip, mentor, and care for pastors and lay-leaders in Mexico. The majority of our pastors are indigenous, speak Spanish as a second language, are quite poor and have little education. In most areas we use a program called Semillas (also called SEAN) to train and equip pastors where they live, so that they can continue in ministry while studying. Recently, we put together a Semillas Facilitators Team composed of Dan and three pastors who are leaders in their respective areas of central Mexico. These men oversee and initiate new classes in their areas, while they themselves are studying in the second level of the program. In some areas the level of education is too low for a formal training program. In those areas we meet with the leaders to answer questions and guide them through any issues they may be facing. In addition to training pastors and lay-leaders Dan is mentoring two national church planting endeavours (one in Mexico, and the other in Popayan, Colombia).
