Missionary of the Month

Roger & Noemi Ehram - WYCLIFFE BIBLE TRANSLATORS

We as a family are happy for the "harvest" we had. A half a ton potatoes should be enough until next year. So we'll be a potato-eating-family. We cannot imagine that potatoes were unknown in Europe until about 1570. Well, we are happy about them now. Homeschooling is still keeping us busy. But as older the children get, the more independent they get. Luana is now 17 and in 10th grad. Don't tell anyone, but she is taller than Noemi and Simona is catching up fast. We jokingly calling them "towers". Seven-month-old Mischa is winning the smiling contest and two-year-old Noa is closing every drawer and putting any lid on he can find - he is very orderly.

Milena is playing the piano by hearing without having a single piano lesson and Josia is often jumping and rolling instead of walking. Elisa is done with peeling the potatoes before we turn around and Jamina is writing book after book. While they grow, Noemi and Roger realize that they get older and Roger soon has to buy his first varifocal glasses.

BETHEL YOUTH...Please drop off snacks for the youth group in the box provided in the foyer. Thanks!

LADIES...We would love to have you as part of our service groups here at Bethel. If you would like to help by baking, serving, prepping or cleaning up after a funeral please contact Grace at the office.
