Missionary of the Month

Roger & Noemi Ehram - WYCLIFFE BIBLE TRANSLATORS

A large portion of our ministry is invested in finding new contacts to churches to introduce the work of Bible translation. We call this church interaction. Many churches have enough missions they invite to their church and do not need another one. Their schedule is often full and when we contact the pastors to schedule a appointment, we sometimes have a bad feeling. Almost all pastors get many weekly emails and/or phone calls of other missions already. We are glad that the Holy Spirit helps us and guides us as to the right churches. He knows who needs to hear about Wycliffe and the work of Bible translation. For Roger it is very important to encourage the fellow believers and inspire them on their walk with the Lord. Many Christians do not see the Bible as important anymore and therefore do not read regularly in it. When we visit the churches we often organize a Bible Sunday to strengthen and point out the importance of the Bible. We feel privileged to encourage believers in so many different churches.
