Missionary of the Month

Peter Mierau - CHILD EVANGELISM FELLOWSHIP

I am very thankful for the prayer support from Bethel. This is one of the most important things one can do for all missionaries that Bethel supports. It is one of the things I appreciate the most, for you are blessed as much as the me, for knowing there is prayer, there is courage to present the gospel. I am reminded of a saying: "If you can not go to the field, then send your representative (a missionary) and support financially and most the important is prayer.) The donations I receive all go into my CEF account that I use for travel expenses and things for the ministry. I pray that in the year ahead many doors would open and that I would share the gospel with the children to a deeper understanding of salvation, and that the Holy Spirit would draw the children to accept the message of salvation. Again, I am very thankful for the prayer warriors and encouragement.
