Missionary of the Month

Matt & Julia Price - YOUTH WITH A MISSION

Julia and Matthew and their kids, Lydia (5) and Bennett (3) live right on the Marine Reach campus in their mobile tiny house. It's quite special for Matt to be working so close to home, which enables him to have most meals together with Julia and the kids, in addition to allowing him to tag-team with Jules more readily in managing the kids. This allows Jules to be more involved with Marine Reach, and helps us feel more connected to the community. At times, being on campus has offered certain benefits, but it also has some drawbacks. It has been difficult, for example, to establish healthy boundaries between home/family and ministry/work. But it has been amazing to be so available to certain staff in their moment of need. Lydia and Bennett have also been so blessed to be growing up in a missional/discipleship community; they get to meet people from all over the world and experience different cultures, and Matt and Jules get to be a witness to these young people of a family that is committed to following Jesus with everything.
